CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE. - The City Conservative Committee met this morning pur suant to adjournment to take into consideration the protest from the First Ward regarding last Thursday's meeting. There were present Messrs. Latham, Washington, Ficklin, Scho field, Caton Rudd and Ervin.

After a private session at the Treasurer's office, the Committee proceeded to the Suc Engine House, where Mr. Latham called it to order, and the resolution passed on Friday, was read. Mr, Latham said that he was not here as a partisan nor had he ever been such, as a member of the Committee; he wished to do justice to all. He did not consider that the committee had any power or right to interfere in this matter. Holding these views and being here merely to defend himself, he should retire at this period. He was present solely to protect his name and character from the slanders and aspersions which had been bandied about the street .-He asked that some one be designated to pre side. He reiterated his opinion that the com mittee had no powers in the premises.

Messrs, Washington, Ficklin, Ecvin, Radd, Schofield and Latham were nominated for chairman but all declined. Finally Mr. Schofield was elected and accepted.

Mr. George A. Mushbach said that Messrs, C. E. Sturt, S. G. Brent and himself appeared for Mr. Neale and asked that the testimony be taken and submitted to the State Conservative Committee. He did not think that it was necessary to state his opinion as to what he thought were the rights of the committee. He had prepared a formal protest signed by the Neale delegates, which was read by the Secretary.

Mr. Caton asked whether General Hunton was represented by any one present. No answer was made, but several persons present said that General Hunton was in town. Mr. Washington asked if the Committee had determined whether or not they had power in the premises.

Mr. C. E. Stuart contended that the committee had already decided to take testimony, which was to be submitted to the State Com-

Mr. Caton thought likewise. Mr. Mushbach recounted the circumstances of the last meeting, and thought the com mittee were assembled to hear testimony. The committee then determined to go or

The two ballets handed to Latham were apparently slipped in, but were not twisted, and dropped apart when he picked them up. He told Mr. Latham "here are two tickets" and handed them to him. A few minutes afterwards he told Mr. Latham that the tickets were probably not east together. No notice was taken of this, however. He then detailed the circumstances at tending the ruling out of the two Neale tickets. as heretofore published. Saw a man standing by him with a red ticket in his hand, which he from the door of more voters. The ticket held was not allowed to deposit. Thought the polls over the bex and refused was a white one. No motion to close polls, but was done by chairman. Saw several persons offer to vote after polls were closed. Saw John Rodier offer and was refused. Knew of three persons, Messis. N. Lindsey, J. Taylor and five tickets were in the box. John Rodier, who were prevented from voting by closing polls. The room was much too small to hold the crowd and most of them were outside. Heard Nevett appeal from the decision and demanded a fair show. Nearly all tickets as to the two ballets, but Mr. Latham refused to [entertain unless 208 voters passed through. 11. J. Nevett sworn and examined by Mr.

Mushbach. Q. Were you present at this meeting? A Yes, sir. Q. In what capacity were you setting there?

A. Secretary. Q. Did you see the two tickets that were taken out of the bex and excluded from the count by the chairman. A. I saw Mr. Dearborn hand them to Mr. Latham. I did not see them taken from the box.

Q. In what condition were they when Mr. Dearborn handed them to Mr. Latham. A. They were lying one on ton of the other or the other. They were banded across the table and may have been lying flat on the other side or the edge of one may have been inside of the

Q. They were not twisted? A. The edge of one may have been stuck in as you stick two pieces of paper together.

Q Were they folded inside of one another? A. They were folded but not twisted. Folded as those tickets are now. One is simply laid in the other. (Referring to exhibit A.)

Q. What were they? A. Two red tickets. Q. They were not twisted? A. No, sir, not when they were handed to Mr. Latham. Q. Did they have the appearance of having been twisted prior to that; any creases, or marks on them. A. To me they did not. Q. Was there any question put to the meeting as to throwing those ballots out? A. No

Q. The chairman decided of his own motion they were to be thrown out? A. Yes, sir. Q. What action did you take when he made that decision? A. As soon as the decision was made there was considerable confusion. There was considerable talk around, and finally, I thick it was Mr. Wm. Rock, judging from the yard in full bearing, accessible to railroad, think it was Mr. Wm. Rock, judging from the church, &c. For terms address A. C., the voice in the back part of the room, sung out, "what was the decision in regard to this matter?" The chairman said it was decided that these tickets were excluded, and that the vote stood 102 for Neale, and 103 for Hunton. As soon as that decision was given I immediately said, "I appeal from the decision of the chair, and demand tellers upon that appeal." Q. What did he say? A. Then there was more confusion. Some young men behind the chair were shouting and hallooing, "You can't have an appeal," and all that kind of thing. The chairman rapped for order, and said, "tellers will be granted, and if 208 persons pass between the tellers, then I will entertain the appeal." Q. He declined to entertain the appeal unless 208 persons passed through? A. Yes, sir. Q. Do you know whether there were 208 persons present at the meeting when he made that decision? A. Only the tellers reported 208.

Q. That number had been reported sometime before? A. Yes, sir. Q. Did you take down the number reported? A. Yes, sir, I took down the number reported. This (producing a sheet of paper with pencil but his friends are hopeful that he may recover. writing upon it) is the tally sheet I used at the Mr. Found is an Alexandrian and has hosts of meeting. Q. Had not some of them gone home in the meantime? A. I think probably they had. 1 was sitting at the table all the while. Of course I could not state of my own knowledge what happened outside. I was informed that a large number of the crowd had gone. That was one of the objections to taking this appeal. Whether it was true or not I could not gists, and Harry C. Hunton, then on the two bills which were counted for Neale and then upon the two dis puted tickets which were thrown out. He heard Edgar Snowden ask that polls be kept open. Mr. Dearborn twisted all the tickets, but one was placed in box without his handling. He illustrated manner in which Dearborn took the disputed tickets from box and said he opened them and pulled them apart. He (Latham) immediately ruled the tickets out and no objection was made. Also stated his ruling on stratehed ticket and hand bills. He handed tickers folded like origina's to stenographer who was present. The originals were also exhibited, but Mr. L. said they had been handled so much as hardly to be fair exhibits and he would not file them. Mr. Schofield again asked if Gen. Hunton was represented, or if his friends desired to be heard, but there was no response.
